There are a limited number of spaces.

If required by the health department, you will be required to practice socially distant guidelines (i.e. wear a mask anytime you are not able to maintain the 6' apart rule as well as to provide hand sanitizer on your table).

Additionally, we ask that you decorate your area for Christmas – make area look nice for the Holiday season.

Except for a few exceptions, at least 50% of items for sale should be hand-made/crafted. Additionally, this is a family friendly event. No foul language or crude gestures to be permitted on merchandise.

May choose one or both weekends.

Must be able to set up both days for entire weekend (weather permitting). This is an indoor/outdoor event. Dress accordingly.

No heaters will be provided. Electric heaters will not be permitted, but some vendors used propane heaters that worked well in the past.

Payment due within ten (10) days of confirmation of your selection for the event in order to secure your spot.
